

"Disabled Free Fest"

The large scale EVS event

Didim, Turkey

01/10/2015 - 30/10/2015

ABOUT THE PROJECT

DISABLED FREE FEST is an EVS project, which will be included 33 EVS volunteers from 11 different countries: Estonia, Moldova, Italy, Bulgaria, Spain, Albania, Belarus, Georgia, Romania, Poland, Sweden.

We expect to host a group of 3 young persons from each partner country for a one month project in Didim (Turkey). Participants should be at the age of 18-30. The groups should include youth with fewer opportunities/ disabilities and who have talent or well developed skills in at least one of cultural area (singing, dancing, craft making, traditional sport etc).

During the large scale EVS young people with different social background will be getting involved as volunteers in the intercultural event called "Disabled Free Fest". Volunteering in this case can be a successful method for reaching different goals: to teach young people in non-formal way, give them new skills and competences; to give them opportunity to work and be proud of the result of their work; to show example for society that people with special needs could be useful and professional; to increase self-esteem and self-confidence of youth with disabilities, to promote volunteering as an opportunity for everyone; to be active and responsible part of society, to promote tolerance and better understanding among people from different cultures.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

S&G: System and Generation Association was established in 2008. Our organization aims making young people integrated with the society, encouraging their entrepreneurial spirit, helping them acquire knowledge and qualification, getting them know young people from different cultures, empowering sympathy and tolerance, improving cooperation and encouraging European cooperation with young people, supporting the cooperation between the international institutions.

ACTIVITIES

Duration of EVS will take one month, which could be separated into four phases:

First phase - team building training (5 days)

Second phase - preparation of Festival event (17 days). The volunteers and local youth will work in different groups, doing workshops and different activities.

Third phase - implementation of Festival event (3 days). The volunteers will represent their own culture and promote volunteering.

Fourth phase - evaluation and dissemination of project outputs and results. During the whole project implementation the volunteers will make a promo video of volunteering among disabled people. This video will be one of the intellectual output of the project.

VENUE

The project will be held in Didim, which is a small town on the Aegean coast of western Turkey and it is the site of the antique city of Didyma with its ruined Temple of Apollo.

The venue of the festival will be placed in "Forest Camp". The camp is located in a forest on the seaside. The place is really suitable place for big public and cultural events. Moreover, this place is capable to hold different open air workshops, concerts and sport activities.

ACCOMODATION DETAILS

Accommodation will be organized in a local hotel and will include breakfasts and dinners.
